WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD

Lady Learned About Cardui, The Woman's Tonic and is Now Enthusiastic in its Praise.

Mount Pleasant, Tenn.—"Cardui is all you claim for it, and more," writes Mrs. M. E. Rail, of this place.

"I was a great sufferer for 2 years and was very weak, but I learned about Cardui, and decided to try it. Now I am in perfect health.

"My daughter, when changing into womanhood, got in very bad health. I gave her Cardui and now she enjoys good health.

"Cardui is worth its weight in gold. I recommend it for young and old."

Being composed exclusively of harmless vegetable ingredients, with a mild and gentle medicinal action, Cardui is the best medicine for weak, sick girls and women.

It has no harsh, powerful, near-poisonous action, like some of the strong minerals and drugs, but helps nature to perform a cure in a natural easy way.

Try Cardui.

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 22, 1910.

AFTER THE R. F. & P. R. R.

Another legislative shot was fired at the R. F. & P. Railroad in the H. use of Delegates in Richmond as was evidenced in yesterday's G. Z. the "Debate" O. R. Coleman, of Scott's Bluffs, offered a bill "to regulate all rail road companies whose charters require such companies to take up or set down passengers to fulfill the terms of such charter and to prescribe penalties." The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac has such a provision in its old charter of 1832, which was "rammed in the days of stage coaches. The requirement long since has been ignored, but it is still a law.

Inviting the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad to surrender its charter and incorporate with the same rights and paying the same taxes as other railroads in the state, and promising it immunity from the special burdens imposed in its charter, Speaker Byrd introduced in the House Saturday a bill which is intended to follow up the policy inaugurated by the speaker and by Mr. Cooke. The bill went to the committee on finance.

Governor Mason received a communication yesterday from President William H. White, of the R. F. & P. R. R., asking him not to sign the pending Sunday train law until his road could have a hearing. It seems that Delegate Cooke, of Norfolk, had put into the bill an amendment aimed directly at the R. F. & P., providing that no railroad exempt from taxation shall enjoy the privilege of running through Sunday freight trains, extended by the bill to other roads. The governor agreed to give President White a hearing before acting on the bill.

The Regal Sans for men in all the new suits can be had of John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

No More Dust.

VETERAN DUST EXTERMINATOR

SWEEEPING COMPOUND

is the successful result of years of diligent study and careful experiment. It is not a liquid, but is made in a solid, granular form. An every day necessity, not a luxury. It absorbs dirt and prevents it from rising during the process of sweeping. It makes bare floors clean and smooth, saves scrubbing, kills the dust and germs, brightens up old carpets and rugs, obviates the disastrous consequences of an inevitable cloud of dust while sweeping the old way.

Used on Floors, Tiles, Linoleums, Oil Cloths, Carpets and Rugs, and possesses properties that firmly grip the dust and dry-cleans them.

Practically Indispensable

for Dwellings, Offices, Stores, Warehouses, Public Buildings, Schools, Colleges, Hospitals, Churches, Theatres, Halls, Restaurants, Hotels, Factories or wherever microbe-infected dust accumulates on floor space.

It is inexpensive; pays for itself by saving hundreds of dollars in damaged goods each year, and it is guaranteed to do the work of extirpating dust.

Dust Breeds Consumption

Dust is extremely disagreeable as well as dangerous, everybody admits that and argument is unnecessary. Dust is destructive, hence the necessity of using a Sweeping Compound of Established reputation and dependable quality, being guaranteed Anti-septic and Disinfectant.

Carpets, Rugs and Art Squares

Why take up carpets and beat them to pieces when the Veteran Dust Exterminator Sweeping Compound will gradually clean them where they are and bring back their original colors on the floor without taking them up?

This sweeping Compound does not lay the dust, but removes it from the floor by absorption. No cut riles and sweeping becomes an unalloyed pleasure instead of a dirty drudgery.
